ARTICLE-6-ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. The President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer and Assigning Secretary should be elected as follows:

- A. A nominating committee of five (one from each division) shall be appointed by the President during the current season, no later than two (2) meetings prior to the next to the last meeting of the year.
- B. It is recommended that the membership contact committee members to notify of the member's intent to be considered for office. These candidates shall be voted on at the last meeting provided they are eligible to vote as a result of the achievement of the voting criteria.
- C. Immediately after the report of the nominating committee, the President shall call for nominations from the floor for each office and the member accept the nomination. In order to be a candidate for elected office, nomination must be accomplished by the close of this meeting. All candidates must meet the eligibility to vote criteria as set by the Board to run for elected office or to replace an elected Board member subsequent to the election via the nomination process.
- D. The Parliamentarian and the Recording Secretary will prepare written ballots with all candidates nominated for each office. Absentee voting is allowed for eligible members who have met the voting criteria for the current election. (1) The votes will be cast during a time period specified by the Board of Directors and will end prior to the election meeting. (2) Absentee voters must inform the Parliamentarian and Recording Secretary of their intention to vote absentee before the announced deadline. (3) The votes will be anonymously cast via electronic means examples being but not limited to The Arbiter or TASO. (4) Absentee ballot will include officer candidates only; division representative will be voted in caucus and not absentee. In case of a run-off election, absentee votes will be cast electronically via a website platform. (5) The Parliamentarian, Recording Secretary, and President will be informed of who voted absentee and the absentee voting results directly by the service prior to the election meeting.
- E. President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Recording Secretary, Treasurer and Assigning Secretary shall be voted on separately and the nominee receiving the majority of vote cast by the membership present plus eligible absentee votes, shall be declared elected. A majority will consist of 51% or more of the votes cast by the membership present. If no candidate receives a majority vote on the first ballot, the candidates with the top two vote totals will have an electronic runoff election as specified by the Board with all eligible voters to participate. Ballots shall be maintained by the current Parliamentarian, stored by Division, stored for a minimum of 30 days, and made available to any candidate requesting to examine same.
- F. Division Representatives shall be elected by a caucus of each division following the election of officers. A person shall not be a Division representative and hold any other elected office in the Chapter. The member receiving the majority of votes cast by the Division membership present shall be declared elected as the Division Representative.
- G. In the division caucus, a member may only vote and/or run for office in the division in which they currently reside. The division representative must be a member of the division they represent, per points total, before and after the election thru their term in office. Failure to follow this statute will result in immediate forfeiture of the division representative position. At least two weeks prior to the caucus, the Parliamentarian and Recording Secretary will verify the member's division. Note: Game points may be submitted each year from the day after the chapter election to September 1st. A member's division will not change from September 1st until after the election.
- H. In the event of extraordinary circumstances, the board by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote may authorize an electronic ballot election with all board member candidates, officer and division representatives, voted upon via electronic ballot. The voting process may then be specified and agreed by the Board by a majority affirmative vote.

- I. Succeeding to the Presidency in case of resignation or removal will be: 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice- President, Secretary and Treasurer.
- J. Board Members shall not serve in the same elected Board of Directors position for more than Two (2) consecutive terms as President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice President, and Recording Secretary; or for more than Three (3) consecutive years as Division Representative or Assigning Secretary. Officers will be elected in the following years;
 - President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President; Elected on odd number years.
 - Recording Secretary, Treasurer; Elected on even number years.
 - Assigning Secretary; Elected on a yearly basis.
 - Division Representatives; Elected on a yearly basis.
- K. Chapter officers-elect and division representatives-elect will begin their term of office on April 1st of each year.

SECTION 2. The removal of Officers of the Chapter may be accomplished by as follows:

- A. A recall petition with the names of 2/3 of the total current membership will be presented to the Board of Directors and a date will be set for a recall election.
 1. The Recording Secretary and Parliamentarian, if the Recording Secretary is not the subject of the recall, will prepare written ballots that may ask only if the removal should take place. In the event the Recording Secretary is subject to recall, the President shall appoint an assistant to the Parliamentarian.
 2. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of a quorum of the membership is necessary for removal. In the event of a recall election a quorum will consist of at least fifty-percent (50%) of the membership.
- B. A performance complaint heard by the Board of Directors.
 1. The complaint will based on either (A) unsatisfactory fulfillment of the duties of the officer or division representative position as described in the RGV Chapter Constitution; (B) excessive violation of Chapter policy related to performance.
 2. A violation of the attendance code as specified in Article 5, Section 3 of the constitution.
 3. The complaint or attendance code violation hearing process will follow TASO Procedural and Policy Violation guidelines specifically Article II, Section A, General, Numbers 1 thru 18.
 4. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote for removal of a quorum of the board of directors is necessary for removal of the officer, division representative, or committee member.

ARTICLE-7-AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

SECTION 1. The constitution and By-Laws may be amended during the chapter meeting calendar year by giving notice of such change in writing to include email to the Recording Secretary who in turn shall immediately notify the President. The president will then present the proposed amendment(s) for approval by the Board at the next scheduled Board meeting. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the Board will constitute approval of the proposal. The President shall make proper announcement at the next regular meeting. Action by the Chapter membership on the amendment(s) will be taken at the first meeting following the Presidential announcement.

SECTION 2. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the membership present is necessary for adoption.

SECTION 3. Any proposed Constitutional amendments or By-Laws alterations during the non-chapter meeting calendar year (off season) must be submitted in writing to the president. The president will submit the proposal to the Board. If the Board of Directors approves the proposal by a 2/3 affirmative majority vote, member votes on the aforementioned will be emailed to the President and the votes will be counted by the Board of Directors under the guidance of the Parliamentarian. For a mail-in or email vote to be valid, fifty percent (50%) of the membership must respond.

ARTICLE-8-CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Section 1. To the extent that there are not in conflict with The Rio Grande Valley Chapter Constitution and By-Laws, Robert's Rules of Order shall prevail during Chapter meetings.
